

Dr. Finny Kuruvilla Founder of Sattler College

Dr. Finny Kuruvilla is the founder and a current board member of Sattler College, a Christian college located in downtown Boston. Dr. Kuruvilla founded Sattler College in 2016 with a passion to lead a revolution in Christian higher education. Dr. Kuruvilla has been a practicing Christian for many years and has a keen interest in fostering a strong and vibrant church today through biblical interpretation and church history.

Additionally, Dr. Kuruvilla works with a group called Eventide in socially responsible and value-based investing where he serves as the CIO for Eventide Funds, lead Portfolio Manager on the Eventide Gilead Fund, and Portfolio Manager on the Eventide Healthcare & Life Sciences Fund. In addition,

He has a unique background in education, healthcare, statistics, and investing. Concurrent with Eventide, from 2008 through 2016, he was a Principal at Clarus Ventures, a leading healthcare and life sciences venture capital firm. From 2006-2008, Dr. Kuruvilla was a research fellow at the Broad Institute of Harvard and MIT, and from 2005-2008, Dr. Kuruvilla was a clinical fellow at the Brigham and Women's Hospital and Children's Hospital Boston and a postdoctoral scientist at MIT.

Dr. Kuruvilla holds an MD from Harvard Medical School, a PhD in Chemistry and Chemical Biology from Harvard University, a master's degree in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science from MIT, and a bachelor's degree from Caltech in Chemistry.

Dr. Kuruvilla lives in the Boston area with his wife Laura, their five sons and daughter.